ETI Group Internal Auditing Services offer solutions for organizations that are challenged to perform effective Internal Audits using internal resources. A qualified and experienced ETI Group auditor will:

- ✓ Perform an Internal Audit per your Management System's documented process to determine adequacy, effectiveness, and conformance with all applicable requirements.
- ✓ Review your procedures against the applicable requirements of the Standard(s) to assess whether the full intent of the requirement is met.
- ✓ Review previous audit records and applicable Corrective and Preventive Action requests to enable follow-up of previous action commitments.
- ✓ Conduct employee interviews and review associated data and records. Objective evidence gathered in the audit will be collected using sound representative sampling techniques.
- ✓ Identify non-conformances, along with potential risks and recommend preventive actions and opportunities to improve performance of your Management System and operations.
- ✓ Provide a detailed internal audit report for your company to maintain as a record and as input to Management Review.
- ✓ Pandemic Contingency Actions: Your audits can be conducted remotely or onsite with the necessary safety precautions.

Why our clients outsource their Internal Audits

- Their Internal Audits are behind schedule
- In-house auditors can't be spared from their regular work
- Outsourcing audits is time and cost effective
- An external auditor provides objective and unbiased insight, , especially when there are sensitive issues that an inside auditor may be hesitant to address
- ETI Group provides detailed and professionally written reports
- They get a more positive response and acceptance of audit findings from an external auditor
- They get more detailed content, findings, and ideas to improve their Management System and operational performance.
- It keeps the, current with changing requirements

Who is ETI Group?

Don't take our word for it, see what our clients have to say!

ETI Group's Internal Auditing support program provides a "common sense" approach that has helped ISO 9001 be very effective for our company.

Peter Fordyce, Boart Longyear

We have been using ETI Group Internal Auditing Services for over 5 years. They have been very instrumental in improving our Quality System and a great help in passing registrar audits with fewer findings. I would recommend ETI to anyone looking for external help to meet their internal auditing needs.

Peter Hayden, Systima Technologies

ETI Group's auditing support program has improved the effectiveness of our Management System and its impact on our business results.

Jack Vilendre, C.H. Perrott, Inc.

We have been working with ETI Group for almost two decades and have found their services a vital addition to our business. They have provided the external input to help us stay current with ever-changing requirements and to continually improve our QMS. We have also saved time and money by having ETI Group perform our internal audits. I would recommend them as a resource to perform your internal audits and to help continually improve performance of your QMS.
